

I don't really know how I get this podium.

To get a good result in a real race you have to steer concentrated and get your eyes focused on the telltales, to get a good result in a virtual race you need time, no children that require attention or wife who demands your time.

This race I was away from home on a business trip and had time ... the good wind and my friend Franci who pushed me to compete did the rest.

MikiCe / July2014