

In Timed Races, the most important is to choose the adequate start moment .

When I took the start in this race I thought I was in delay half an hour or more and I'll finish in about ten or more hours, and this was confirmed passing DMZ island.

But, meteo changed for the second half of the race and gave me a present in bronze form!

Congrats all Racers.

karaoke / August 2014