

Fun race, although in my opinion, a little too long race window.

With the right wind direction I estimated the highest wind speed at about four o'clock in the morning with an average wind speed of 31.5 knots. That seemed to be the best opportunity during these two weeks.

Well done all!

atlet / January 2015