

HA ! my first race report since i never made the top 3 !

First, i would like thank the whole SOL team for making this game (since it is a game) possible !

Ok, the race.. not that complicated from the start, i thought. Only 30 min after the start, the wx came. And since i had 2 routes, and choose 1 (like most mobsters and other competitors) , the 1630 wx made me choose #2.

That was the first decision, and a well calculated one.

Then i had a second move. Now, i can tell you a long story, and that was a calculated one, but it wasn't. At all. I was working & having birthday, so i headed more west than the usual suspects. That turned out to be the next good move.

After that, the usual suspects smelled my tail.... I was mostly looking at Kenza , Dingo, and PetrM, since Ita will follow me anyway ☺.

And then it was battling with both the polar, some stuff placed in the sea, and in the end with " mezzora all'ultima strambata.." Ita.

As you maybe know or not know, i always have a rule.. : #1 beat the Italians, #2 no panic, #3 win the race. And that worked out!

Now, since i am a newbie, and i only race here for 3 years, i still would like to thank all the players who make this the addictive fun it is. Every battle is a battle, for the first place, but also for #20, #40, or #120 place!

Now, on a Film credit you have a special thxs to in the end...Here it is : Aner59, Kenza, Naccr, Dingo, Bonkert, Smo, Wetwing Sightseeing tours, Garagiste, Varmint the brave, StingF1 and Karriv, Tyger, MM (always to close) , Scara (same) , Neuroman (even closer) , Psail, Stoeeeeert!, the Dutch players Krimpert, Spirit of 020, Amsterdamned, PetrM the Tallship master , RC for always staying polite with all that testosterone in the chat, Go4it, and last but certainly not least, WINSTON for sending me my first Gold medal , HA !

To make a long story short.. : So long, and thanks for all the Fish !
