

First look at the race: Well, it's very simple! Almost in a straight line. At the end of a couple of turns.

After preliminary calculations: It is not easy. You have to be very careful in the middle of the race.

After all calculations, before the start: If you're lucky, get into the TOP-10.

After leaving the port: Let's see who's here? Oh, how many fast boats ...

On the way to the Philippines: balancing between desires - to go just to the north and the desire to go a little further south.

Over 150 miles from the Philippines: The odds still there ...

Between turns in the Philippines: take a place in the hall and watch a beautiful duel between nacr8 and aner59.

In the vicinity of the last mark: aner59 - brilliant race! High class! Applause and congratulations!

And as always, thank Sailonline.org for this nice race!
