

Race Reporters Wanted!

AHOY SOLers!

Race Reporters are wanted to comment on Sailonline races!

Whether you are a front-runner or someone further back in the field, your written comments and insights on how a race has gone are very welcome and are now being actively sought!

You may write technically, you may write anecdotally. Everything that is fit to print will be used.

Contributions should be submitted during or shortly after a race as follows:

1. Directly and in full to reporters@sailonline.org, Subject Race Report - name of race or

2. posted as a blog, either on solfans, or on a personal blog and then we just need the url.

Once received, the contributions will be included in the Homepage Results blogpost. If the comment is very brief, then it may appear verbatim in the Sailonline blogpost.

This concept continues to be a work-in-progress... if you have spent any time at all on Sailonline's Homepage and investigated the central column archive you will see that we've had some fabulous race reports and it would be good to see this evolve further.

So

How about it wordsmiths?
