

AVOID!!

Make a plan, sail the plan

we made a discussion within the Italian team what to do and this was my idea:

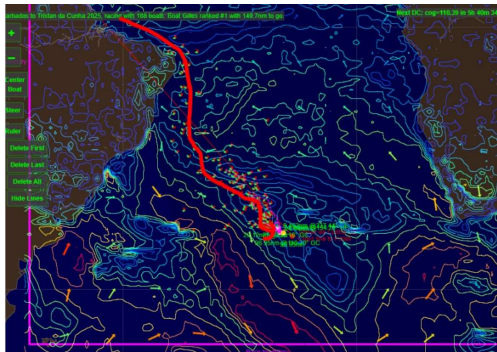

Basically:

avoid the shore till Recife,

avoid BBQ at Recife

avoid the blue around the tropic

avoid to be caught by mates running close behind like greyhounds with a rabbit (quote: Dingo)

The result was that I run the plan and after Recife I did not use the route at all,
Just lucky to be in front and then only take care of covering Dingo, aner , slide and the fleet...

Especially an eye on the top 5, they routed for me 😊

The sailed route then reveals itself to be quite close to the plan.

Fair wind
