In the wide and sheltered bay of Kaštelanski Kanal behind Split's Marjan peninsula, the Marina Kaštela has long surpassed by those of Split itself, Zenta and Spinut nearby. Little wonder then that, with all this berthage capacity catering to the booming (and ever pricier) Croatian yachting industry, the local boatbuilder Salona has gone from strength to strength since its founding in 2012.

The yard, named after the Romans' 3rd C BC regional capital and naval stronghold on the Dalmatian coast, currently (2025) builds four elegant, spacious cruiser racers. The Salona 39 is its most popular model, and Sailonline are delighted to be able to make her available to the online racing community.

Her online racing record, as it develops, you will find under the link below.
