

Carib Rum Run 2025

QMaxx

The Carib Rum Run o' 2025 be a wild voyage through the tropic seas, with a crew o' sharp-minded sailors and winds that twisted like a kraken's tail. From the first bell, it were clear this weren't no pleasure cruise—tight turns, shifty breezes, and sneaky channels kept every ship on edge. The race be fierce. Every vessel fought tooth and nail, and each choice—be it a gybe, a tack, or a bold dash near the rocks—could've sunk yer chances.

No sailor had it easy, but the fleet pressed on to the bitter end. This be the kind o' race that reminds ye why we sail: brains, bravery, and a splash o' luck, all stirred in a barrel.

A hearty cheer to the SOL crew for chartin' this fine course, and a toast o' rum to all who dared the run. May the winds be ever in yer favor, and may yer compass never lie!
